REF: Interview of Former Special Agent of the FBI John C. Wagner

Dear

The enclosed transcription of an interview of former Special Agent John C. Wagner was conducted by former Special Agent James Healy in July of 2010. It has been edited for repetitions and spelling. This final transcription was completed on March 1, 2012.

We request your review of the material so that it can be made available to scholars and researchers interested in this period of the FBI.

Please call me at 203-253-3465 if you have any further questions about this submission. Any correspondence should be addressed to the address below. Thank you for your assistance in completing this review.

Sincerely,

Susan Walton Wynkoop

FBI Review,

Attached are two more chapters for my book Murdered Justice. The chapter titled Lethal Corruption is also being considered for use in a TV series that is still in the early stages of development. The chapter titled The Makarov Mystery, I just wanted to confirm for you that all information was open source, obtained primarily via news papers and press releases.

Good Morning. I'm the Prepublication Review coordinator for RMD.

We have a small manuscript, approx. 20 pages, which deals with Russian Counterintelligence issues during the Cold War.

My section Chief has asked that we reach out to CD, to have you all review the manuscript to highlight any material you may find objectionable.

May I send the manuscript to your attention?

Thanks for any help you can provide.

Re: Career Day Presentation

Dear

This letter is in response to your April 23, 2012, request for approval to participate in a career day presentation pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to speak is approved; however, one change is needed to your powerpoint slides. This change is specified here: You are advised that you are not authorized to use the FBI seal or Special Agent badge, or any colorable imitations in connection with your slides. You are further advised that you are not authorized to use the initials FBI, the words Federal Bureau of Investigation, or any colorable imitations in any manner reasonably calculated to convey the impression that the FBI endorses, approves, or authorizes your publication.

Also, any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

259A-HQ-1503014-287

PREPUB-7858

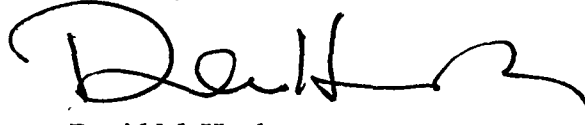

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details. Also, please incorporate a clear statement advising the audience that the opinions expressed in the presentation are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at [redacted]. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Mr. Hardy,

Per your request in your letter dated 02/23/2012, I have attached the PowerPoint Presentation I submitted for the class presentation portion of my research project for [redacted]. The presentation covers just a single aspect of my project, so I chose to highlight [redacted].

b6 -2

My research paper is due by April 29th, so I will send a copy of that next week as well. As a reminder, the entirety of this project is submitted to my professor for a grade only, not for publication.

Thank you again for your assistance.

All the best,

I chose a Bureau (law enforcement) related topic because the course is designed to provide students with an opportunity to write about/for the industry or organization they work for or hope to work for. However, I have attempted to identify a topic related to the Bureau that avoids case specifics and anything related to sensitive information. My focus when talking to Bureau employees will be on very generalized information only.

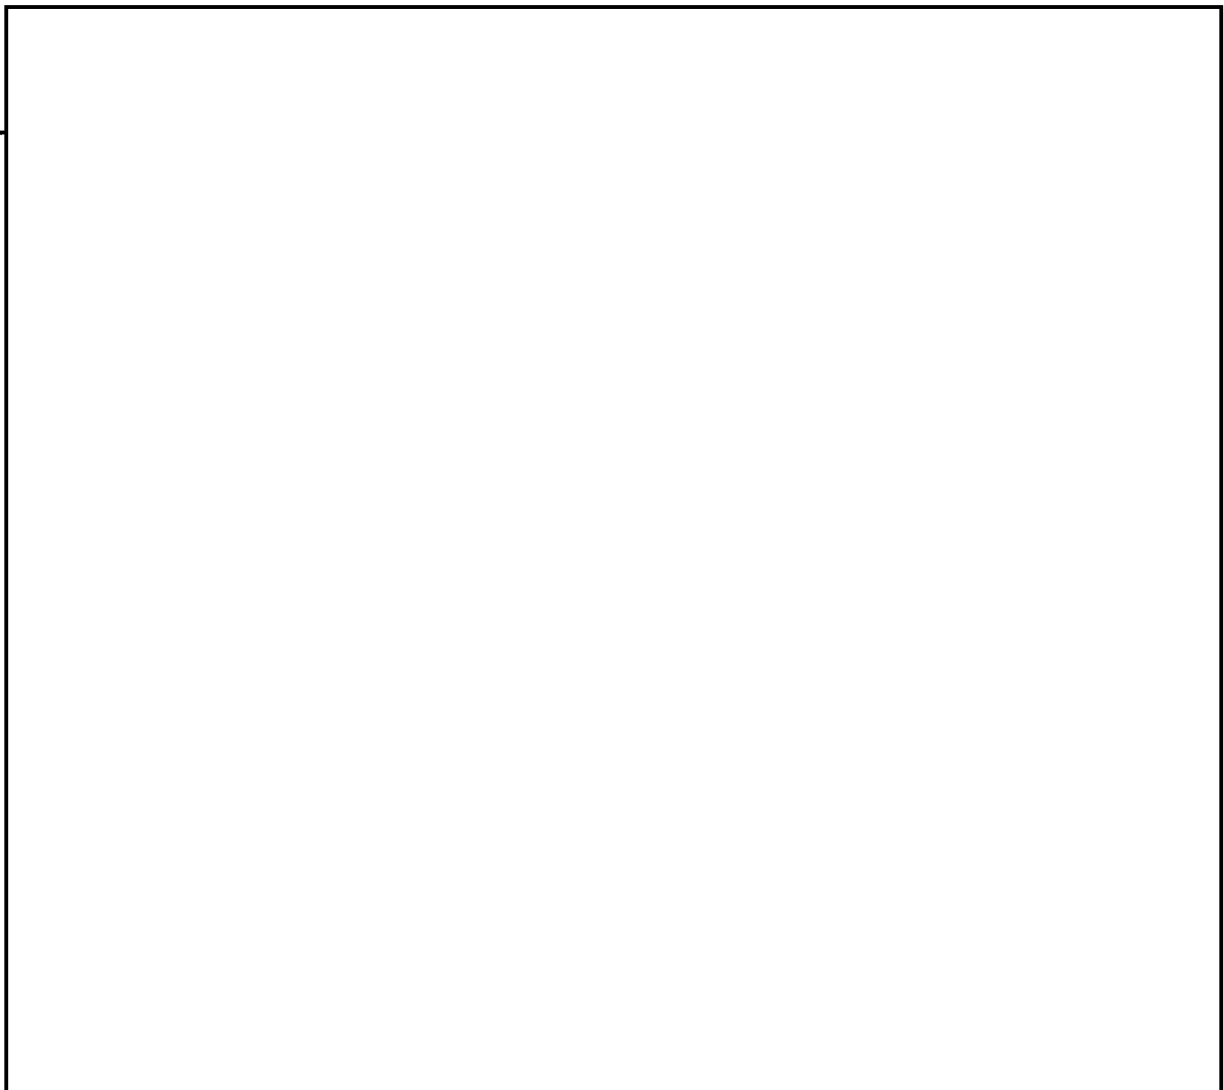

Please let me know if I may proceed as planned, or if I should try to find primary sources strictly outside the FBI.

I appreciate your time and advice.
